The Senior Class Creed

WE, THE Senior Class of Wadesboro High School, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred thirty-six, do believe that a high school education is of the highest importance to an individual and that in order to procure the greatest possible benefits from such a high school education we must co-operate to the best of our individual ability with our teachers, our superintendent, and our classmates. We believe that the academic course of study is of primary importance, but that extra-curricular activities are highly beneficial.

We believe that, as Seniors, we should set the precedent in good behavior, good sportsmanship and right attitude, and be above reproach in keeping all our high school rules and regulations.

We believe that inasmuch as athletics strengthen the body and stimulate the brain they should be included in our high school course.

We believe that in high school we should develop and train ourselves in the principles of straight thinking, strength of character, and temperance in all things, so that upon graduation we shall be better fitted to live full, righteous lives as citizens of the United States or of any other country in which our lot may be cast.

Foreword

HERE probably never has been a high school student who has not wanted to have and to keep a written and pictured story of his school days. With that in mind we have endeavored to herein give to you a lasting record of this school year. We have been unable to make our record complete; but if, in our feeble way, we have been able to preserve for you some of the things held sacred by all of us, our work has not been in vain. It is, then, with pleasure and pride that we, the Class of 1936 and THE ROINES Staff, present this our

DEDICATION

WE LOVINGLY DEDICATE THIS SECOND
EDITION OF THE ROINES TO ONE WHO HAS EVER BEEN OUR FRIEND . . .

M. D. CADDELL

To The Class of 1936

I AM greatly appreciative of this manifestation of your affection and esteem. Since I first came among you four years ago you have become very near and dear to me. You have so freely bestowed on me your confidence and generosity that I feel as though I have always known and loved you. Your sympathy and encouragement have always been freely given and as gratefully appreciated.

My earnest hope is that your future life may realize all that your school days now seem to promise. I know that you, in noble manhood and womanhood, will honor this school by your future lives of usefulness, prosperity, and happiness.

May you on the happy day of May 27 receive your honors from this school. Keep and cherish them, and always look to them as the guiding lights to higher successes.

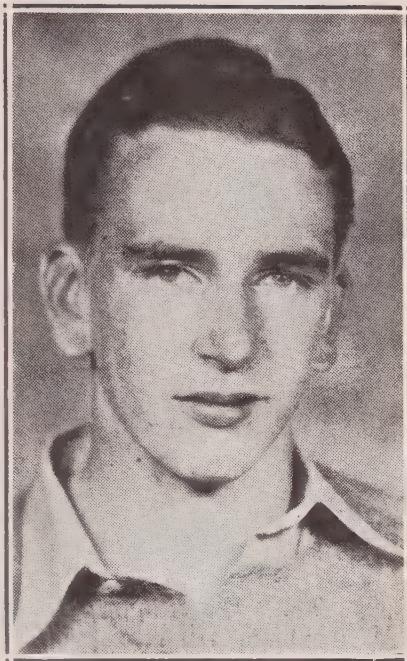

M. D. CADDELL.

Best Wishes
for your son
and Margaret Huntley

Class History

CHAPTER I

Eleven years ago a group of frightened youngsters, accompanied by their loving parents, crossed the threshold of their education. Miss Mary Plunkett and Mrs. Joe Liles led them with patience and care on to the first step of the stairway of learning. Some of us remember vividly the corners of those rooms in which we were forced to stand. Miss Mabelle Nall, Miss Dorothy Fetzer, and Miss Elizabeth Webb led us on to the second step, and from this second step we viewed eagerly the heights which we hoped to attain. Those of us who were able to make the grade were led on by Mr. Elinor Gray and Miss Julia Cameron. Miss Nannie Gulledge and Miss Ethel Johnson led us on to the fourth step. We were proud then, because we were big enough to leave the old building. That old building will always occupy a prominent place in our memories.

CHAPTER II

Junior High! Little did we know as we ascended to the fifth step and to the new building what all would happen before we reached our goal of graduation. We were led up this step by Miss Kate Leak and Miss Ann LeSturgeon. On to the sixth step we went, led by Miss Pauline Pinkston, Miss Lois Parker, Miss Lillian Cunningham, and Mr. Mac. H. Johnson. Miss Pinkston, Miss Cunningham, Miss Edith Kimsey, and Mr. Johnson led us on across the seventh step. On this step Mr. F. R. Richardson became our new superintendent. Our class had the honor of being the first class to hold Junior High Graduation exercises. I doubt if we shall ever be as thrilled as we were on the night that we received our diplomas.

CHAPTER III

Now the steps became more difficult, but we did not mind because we had reached high school. On the eighth step we had many different things to attract our interests. Clubs, athletics, foreign languages, and other grown-up activities were met up with. We became quite modern and insisted that our Book Club be called the "Hot-Cha Club". On this step we had a different teacher for each subject and those who led us across this step were: Mrs. Herbert Dockery, Miss Minnie Hollowell, Miss Alice Fitch, Miss Frances James, Miss Dora Little, Mrs. Harry Covington, and Mr. M. D. Caddell. The marshals on this step were Roberta Dunlap and Happy Richardson. One would have hardly recognized the group on the eighth step as being the same group which entered the first grade seven years before.

As we left the eighth step our members from over at the Wade Mill failed to go on with us, because they changed and went on to Lilesville. When we reached the ninth step we were very conceited because we were Sophomores in high school—but one really can see a great distance from nine steps. We were led across this step by Miss James, Miss Hollowell, Mrs. Covington, Mrs. Dockery, Miss Margaret Stallings, and Mr. Caddell. The marshals on this step were Roberta Dunlap, Happy Richardson, and Elizabeth Hightower.

On to the tenth step! That year we had for our home room teacher, Mrs. Sarah H. Edmunds. On that step we had a great deal of excitement—probably the outstanding thing being the Junior-Senior Banquet. Another interesting thing we met up with was the Junior Play, "The Ghost Story". Our three new teachers were Miss Elizabeth Redwine, Miss Frances Stansell, and Miss Sarah Trott. The marshals were Roberta Dunlap, Happy Richardson, Elizabeth Hightower, and James Edwards. By the time we had gone across this step we began to realize that we might finish high school sometime. And then we came to the eleventh step.

We climbed to the eleventh step very light-heartedly, but it is with heavy hearts that we cross over this step. This, our last year, has in many ways been our best year. We have enjoyed it all, even the bad part. At the beginning of this year, Miss Hallie McNair was our home room teacher, but after two weeks she left and Miss Martha Austin came and she has led us on to the last. Our other new teachers this year are: Miss Corinne Jones, Miss Lou Pitts, Miss Louise Bennett, Miss Margaret Abbott, Mrs. F. A. Huntley, and Mr. George Snuggs. Our superintendent resigned and Mr. Caddell, who was formerly our principal, became our new superintendent. The Juniors entertained us at a very enjoyable Junior-Senior Banquet. Our financial triumph was a second edition of THE ROINES.

Now that we have reached the summit of this stairway, we are able to see in the distance broader horizons than we had ever dreamed of. Ahead we see higher stairs. May we all, with strength of purpose and character, reach the top of any stairway which we may attempt to mount. May we never forget the ideals and principles that have been instilled in us while attending the Wadesboro School.

BETSY SHAW PRUETTE, Historian.

CLASS POEM

WHEN THE SCHOOL'S LAST LESSON IS COMPLETED

(Apologies to Kipling)

JAMES EDWARDS

*When the School's last lesson is completed and
 The Class's knowledge is tried,
 When the brightest pupil has been graduated, and
 All the lazy have stepped aside,
 We shall rest, and faith, we shall need it—
 We shall rest for a second or two,
 Till the wonderful thought of Money
 Shall set us to work anew.*

*And some that are gone shall be happy:
 They shall sit in a theater chair,
 They shall dream of the wonderful schooldays
 With their comrades when there.
 Some shall find real jobs to work on
 With the sounding of life's call;
 Some shall make life's journey alone
 And never be tired at all.*

*And only the world shall praise us and
 Only the world shall blame;
 And everyone shall work for money and
 Everyone shall work for fame.
 But each in his separate calling
 Whether here or in a land afar
 Shall remember the dear old schooldays
 And things as they were and are.*

CLASS SONG

MIRIAM LEAVITT

To the tune of: "After All I've Been To You"

*We can't believe that every thing is over,
 We can't believe that we are really through,
 We're saying goodby,
 Our ending is nigh,
 You'll never know how we'll miss you.*

*We worked so hard, and now that school is over
 We've come tonight to get our just reward,
 And after the end
 Let's all still be friends
 Passing down life's road so hard.*

*Even tho' at times we were discouraged,
 In the struggle you led the way,
 And all the while a voice inside us
 Convinced us we'd win, someday.*

*We can't believe that everything is over,
 We can't believe that we are really through,
 We're saying goodby,
 Our ending is nigh,
 So farewell to dear old Wadesboro High.*

Here's to our schoolmates departing!
 Here's to our friends leaving us
 To find new fields of knowledge,
 Of wisdom, of love, and of trust.

Here's to our future townsmen!
 Here's to our employers to be,
 Who will make of this city a new one
 And gain faith and loyalty.

Here's to the brothers and sisters
 Who are climbing the Ladder of Life
 To gain new laurels of bravery,
 And happiness instead of strife!
